

Reprint Articles from Chatgris Press

Gary Michael Smith has written 224 articles for 68 technical, trade, professional, and scientific magazines and journals on topics such as scientific/technical communication, writing/publishing, journal management, general business, driving safety, and the film industry, and cats. Some articles were written as promotionals for his books, others as features for renowned periodicals. Select articles now are available on an individual reprint basis.

Mr. Smith is the author of 11 internationally selling books such as The Peer-Reviewed Journal—A Comprehensive Guide through the Editorial Process, which is used for scientific journal and trade magazine management in 14 countries. Other pioneering texts include Publishing for Small Press Runs—How to Print and Market from 20 to 200 Copies of Your Book, which is used as the classroom text for a college course conceived, developed, and taught by the author. Other college texts by Mr. Smith include Perfecting Your Prose—A Guide to Improved Writing; Writing for Magazines and Trade Journals—Finding Them, Writing for Them, Getting Paid by Them; Gainfully Employed—A Guide to Résumé Writing, Job Hunting, and Effective Interviewing; and Movie Extra 101—Your Shortcut to Stardom. Other books include From Bean to Brew—A History of Coffee and Coffeeshouses; Operating Procedures for Association Chapters and Committees—Developing Usable Guidelines for Officers and Managers; The Complete Guide to Driving Etiquette—Taking the Rules of the Road a Step Further; On-Demand Publishing—Strategies for Printing on Demand, Point of Purchase Book Manufacturing, and Virtual Publishing; and Getting Grease—A Guide to Effective Complaint Resolution and Consumer Protection.
