Publish Your Own Cookbook

A Free Talk with Gary Michael Smith
10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Arabella Station Community Room Don't miss Gary's upcoming seminar on small press runs, which can apply to cookbooks, memoirs, and more! He'll discuss the most pertinent tasks for producing a quality paperback book in short press runs, condensing his 16-hour University of New Orleans course into 1.5 hours. Handouts will be provided, and his book Publishing for Small Press Runs will be available. Also, he'll display Angelina's Favorite Recipes — an excellent example of a self-published cookbook by Angelina Mannuccia Mitchell.

Register at the customer service counter or call 504.899.9119. Seating is limited to the first 25 registrants.
