Governor

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the state of Louisiana recognizes the importance of effective communication to the advancement of automotive and transportation safety; and
- WHEREAS, the effective communication of automotive and transportation safety contributes greatly to our quality of life; and
- WHEREAS, institutes, associations, and professional/technical organizations in our state strengthen the quality of this communication through research and instruction; and
- WHEREAS, productivity, global competition advantage, and standards of professional excellence are enhanced by fostering bridges of communication between persons who create ideas and those who use them; and
- WHEREAS, Chatgris Press, the Institute of Transportation Engineers (Southern District, Deep South Section), and the Horseless Carriage Club of Louisiana exist to enrich the education, professionalism, effectiveness, and personal fulfillment of persons who encourage, communicate, and otherwise endorse transportation, travel, and overall motor vehicle safety issues, including authors, publishers, traffic engineers, transportation planners, vintage automobile enthusiasts, and all others concerned with the promulgation of automotive transportation driving safety.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, M.J. "Mike" Foster, Jr., Governor of the state of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim the week of December 20-26, 1999, as in the state of Louisiana, and ask that all motorists practice polite and courteous driving thereby ensuring a premium quality of life for the citizens of Louisiana.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand officially and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Louisiana, at the Capitol, in the City of Baton Rouge, on this the 2nd day of December A.D., 1999.
